

I am writing to express my strong support for number portability among wireless carriers. I believe this will improve competition and force carriers to improve their service and more importantly customer service which is relatively poor industry wide. Furthermore, customers should not be punished for switching services, as they are not with land lines and most other industries. Thanks for your time.